

Isaiah 50:5-9

The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me? Then let us go to court together. Who thinks he has a case against me? Let him approach me. The Lord is coming to my help, who will dare to condemn me?

Psalm 114(116):1-6,8-9

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

I love the Lord for he has heard
the cry of my appeal;
for he turned his ear to me in the day when I called him.

They surrounded me, the snares of death, †
with the anguish of the tomb;
they caught me, sorrow and distress.

I called on the Lord's name.
O Lord, my God, deliver me!

How gracious is the Lord, and just;
our God has compassion.

The Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so he saved me.

He has kept my soul from death, †
my eyes from tears
and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

James 2:14-18

Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him? If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty', without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead.

This is the way to talk to people of that kind: 'You say you have faith and I have good deeds; I will

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord; No one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

Mark 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say I am?' And they told him. 'John the Baptist,' they said 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him.

And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

The group will be meeting soon to pull some thoughts and suggestions together, and these will get fed back to the wider parish as soon as possible.

In the meantime if you want to get a flavour of things then do visit where you can see videos, read the transcripts of talks and so on. Highlights include the talks by Bishop Robert Barron. His first talk, especially, is recommended. It is on the Mass and is an engaging exploration of the subject.

Refreshments in Benedict Room. Thank you to those who have volunteered to assist with the after-Mass refreshments on Sunday mornings. Sadly only one person has volunteered to assist over the 11am Mass so it is not practical to 'open up' during that slot for now. That's a pity, because often a large number of people came. If you wish to volunteer to assist then please see Fr Allen. There will be refreshments after the 9am Mas, and the rota for volunteers is available on the board at the back of church. Here too though we are pushed for helpers - so if you could help please see Fr Allen.

Second Collections. There is a retiring collection today to support the bishops' Agency for Evangelisation. The Agency supports the bishops in their work of developing and coordinating strategies to share the gospel here in England and Wales. Next weekend there is a collection for Father Hudson's Care (www.fatherhudsons.org.uk); and the weekend of 6/7 October, and following Harvest Fast Day on 5 October, there is a collection for CAFOD.

Emmanuel church is at corner of Birmingham Road and Little Green Lanes, B72 1DP. Our ecumenical relationships are important, because they help us face and address the scandal of division in the Church, in the Body of Christ. Of course, we Catholics know that we are right and they are wrong (joke?), but we have much to learn from other Christians about how to address our common future and common

Book Club Next meeting is at 8pm on Monday 17 September and the book The Diaries of Etty Hillesum 1941-3, "A story of spiritual growth such as I have seldom seen anywhere... Etty's diaries complete Anne Frank's... a marvellous gift."

Deepening our participation at Mass

Make the most of the silence Look!

As was considered at Mass last Sunday silence is an essential component of the Liturgy of the Word, allowing us to hear more deeply and 'own' and begin to respond to the readings proclaimed to us.

Those silences are offered to us at different points. There should be a brief silence after each reading, about 30 seconds, as we take stock. If you are using the Newsletter to follow the reading, you might let your eyes drift back over the text and note what especially struck you, and maybe to take note of why it struck you. Was it a word of joy, hope? Was it something that you do not agree with, or something that challenges you about how you live or the circumstances you find yourself in.

Later in the Mass there are longer times of silence - while we are preparing for the Offertory Procession, or the time after we have received Holy Communion. Come back to the reading and your thoughts/feelings about it, and continue your dialogue with God, make your prayer to him. And always know you are welcome to take the newsletter home with you. The Sunday Scriptures are not fast food, but they are great for takeaway!

One of the somewhat odd things that Catholic do is at those moments that the Blessed Sacrament is raised for us to gaze upon and venerate, many of us immediately avert our eyes and look away. It really doesn't make sense but it seems a widely learnt behaviour.

There are two moments when the Eucharist is presented for our gaze. The original moment is when we are invited to come to receive Holy Communion: 'Behold the Lamb of God...'

The showing more recently emphasised, (since about 900AD!) is of the Bread and of the Wine immediately after the consecration. These elevations of the Eucharistic elements was considered especially important during the Middle Ages when regularly only the priest would receive Communion at Mass.

Historians record congregations calling on the priest to hold the host, higher and for longer, so that they might make communion with their eyes!

Times change, but still these moments of the Eucharist presented to our eyes are times for our gazing in adoration. The Lord does not expect us to turn from him, but to look upon his sacramental presence in wonder and love.

For the sick and those who care for them

A simple and brief monthly service of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, with prayer for the sick and for carers, and the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Followed by light lunch.

2019 Parish Pilgrimage

Thanks to all those who have said they would like to join a parish pilgrimage to Walsingham next summer.

There will be a brief meeting after the 6pm Mass on Saturday 13th October to explore the possibilities, and seek to take things further.

In Hospital or going there?

Roman Catholic Chaplains are appointed to all local hospitals.

Patients, and relatives of patients, are urged to make sure that Catholic patients admitted to hospital are registered as Roman Catholic on admission. If they wish to be visited by the Catholic Chaplain, they should ask the ward nurse to arrange this. Data protection legislation means that unless this is done your details will not be passed to the Chaplain.

If you wish to be visited by Fr Allen as well as the hospital chaplain then please let him know. It is very helpful if you can give details of the ward the patient is on, and also the phone number of a family member/friend.

Many people find it helpful to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick when they experience serious ill health. If you would like to receive the Sacrament, please let Fr Allen know.

Will you help support the life and health of our parish?

How about helping with the parish Confirmation and First Communion programmes?

It is a privileged opportunity to support children and families and take part in something very enjoyable.

How about being part of a parish group offering hospitality to local people wanting time and space just to chill out.

Mondays 10.30-1.30 and the Benedict Room are available for us to offer care and welcome.

Readers and Ministers of Holy Communion

There is be a brief meeting after each Sunday Mass on 15/16 Sept to introduce ministry of Holy Communion and Readers to those parishioners who would like a brief introduction to what is involved in these ministries, before offering themselves to serve the parish.

For more information, please contact Fr Allen.
