

Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout: 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!'

See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here.

They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Psalms 125(126)

What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!'

What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

Salve Regina, Mater misericordiae:
vita dulcedo, et spes nostra, salve.
Ad te clamamus, exules filii hevae.
Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes,
in hac lacrimarum vale.
Eia ergo, Advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte.
Et Jesum benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exilium ostende.
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis Virgo Maria.

*Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To thee to we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn, then, most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this, our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.*

As many of you will already be aware, the Archdiocese of Birmingham will be participating in the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) at a hearing next month (November) in London.

IICSA was set up some years ago by the government following a number of high profile and serious cases of historic child abuse.

Through its investigations, IICSA is seeking to understand "what went wrong, and why".

The Archdiocese has been asked to participate in IICSA's investigations along with other organisations within the Catholic Church.

A Pastoral Letter will be read out in all churches next weekend (3/4 November) on this matter.

If you would like to speak to someone about safeguarding and the Church's work, please call 0121 230 6240 or emergency out-of-hours on 07976 516629.

Please pray with us for all victims of abuse, and for all those involved in the work of this important Inquiry.

after each Sunday Mass on 1st and 2nd December.
Thank you to the many parishioners who came to Monday's planning meeting. It is now all systems go.
Proceeds from the Fair will be sent to support the work of a charity working with survivors of abuse.

Together with Mary in Advent

During Advent - on a day and at a time of your own choosing - each family, each household in the parish is invited to pray the five Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary.

Each family can do this privately, but it is hoped that many will take the opportunity to invite other family and friends to join them; and that at least some will be happy to invite still other parishioners to come and join them.

During Lent it is proposed to have a series of house masses in various areas of the parish. Those hosting parish celebrations of the Rosary might well be the obvious choice to turn first when looking for hosts for house masses too. More details next week.

Parish

Thursday of this week is a Holy Day of Obligation. All Saints Masses will be celebrated at 7pm on Weds evening and 10am on Thursday morning.

Today we have our World Mission Day collection to support the work of Missio. Thank you for your support of this and the various other collections that each parish is required to make to support the Church's work at home and overseas.

First Communion families. The rotas for children and their families to assist with the Offertory at Masses through to next summer are available in the porch and on the website. If a child and their family cannot help on the weekend(s) scheduled please swap with another family. Let us all continue to keep these children and their families in our prayers.

Missio Red Boxes If you could bring your boxes to church in the next few weeks that would be appreciated but please do not leave them on the table at the back of church as unfortunately a few full boxes have been stolen from church. If you could hand them to any promoter or leave them with Fr Allen if no one else is available. With regret this will be the last cash Missio red box collection in the parish. This said it does not mean you cannot continue to donate to Missio in the way of direct debit if you wish to do so. Forms are available from your promoter or leave a note with your box and Diane will contact you. For further information please contact her on 07960 733155

Deepening our participation at Mass:

Sharing in the presence of Christ

This brief series of reflections has been written in the wake of Adoremus - the National Eucharistic Congress which was convoked to promote a deeper sense of reverence for the Eucharist, and in particular to encourage devotion to the Eucharist outside of Mass.

This final pair of reflections originates in the consideration of some local practice!

Communion under Both Kinds

The first is to note how few of our congregation receive the Precious Blood, receive from the chalice at Mass. I took the opportunity of Fr Tiziano's visit recently to minister the chalice myself.

It is not compulsory that the opportunity to receive from the chalice is offered at every Mass. But when it is offered why should we receive. Sometimes people object to sharing the common cup - but this is potent symbol of our being called to the common life, communion, in Christ. Sometimes people have concerns about hygiene - however I don't see those who do receive from the chalice being more susceptible to colds and flu and the like.

Receiving Holy Communion, we know that Christ, whole and entire, his body and blood, together with his soul and divinity, is truly, really and substantially present. This is so whether we receive Holy Communion under both forms of bread and wine, or in one form alone. However, each form has its own particular meaning or symbolism which enriches our celebration of this Sacrament. In the Sacred Host, Christ is presented as the Body broken for us, in which is our strength; in the Chalice he is the Precious Blood poured out for us, in which is our forgiveness.

Introducing children to Mass

It is sad to see children brought to Mass by their families but not being helped to take part, even to join in our common actions of standing, sitting, kneeling etc; in responses; and in song.

When children as young as 4-years old come to Mass with their school, their teachers take care to help their participation. But not a few parents seem happy to abandon their child to their toys, or colouring-in etc. Parents have the opportunity of giving direct and individual support to their children, and this establishes good foundations for their future attitudes to Mass and prayer.

There may be moments when colouring-in has a place - those interminable homilies?! - but our children deserve something more most of the time.

Some resources for children and parents are available in the Repository. Do please use them to help you with the support I'm sure every parent wants to give their child.
