

Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses said to the people: 'If you fear the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you, you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson. Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord the God of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow.

'Listen, Israel: the Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart.'

Psalm 17(18):2-4,47,51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise,
when I call I am saved from my foes.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!

Praised be the God who saves me,
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed.

Hebrews 7:23-28

Christ, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. There used to be a great number of priests under the former covenant, because death put an end to each one of them; but this one, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain, since he is living for ever to intercede for all who come to God through him.

To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised up above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and then for those of the people, because he has done this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life; you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more.

Prayer for use when visiting a grave

Eternal God, we give thanks for N.
We come to remember him/her,
for the bonds of love are not unravelled by death.
Keep us all one in your love and care
so that at the last, with N.,
we may be gathered together in your loving embrace.
O God, when memory is sad,
hold us gently in your hand.
When memory is sweet,
give us grace to thank you.
Watch always over N.,
and at the last may we all be united in your glory.
These things we ask through Jesus Christ,
your Son, our Lord
who lives and reigns
with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Together with Mary in Advent

During Advent - on a day and at a time of your own choosing - each family, each household in the parish is invited to pray the five Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary.

Each family/household can do this privately - and a sheet will be available to help those people who are less familiar with the Rosary.

It is also hoped that many will use the opportunity to invite friends and family and neighbours - perhaps from other churches too - to come and join them in a time of prayer and for a cup of tea or coffee afterwards. It is a good way to mark the particular religious significance of Advent.

It is an especially valuable thing to do for families with children - perhaps combining in with the fun of lighting of the Christmas Tree for the first time, and taking a short time to remember the fundamental reason we celebrate Christmas.

If you are happy to open your time of prayer more widely then please do sign up on the list in the porch.

Rosary leaflets will be available in the porch from Sunday Nov 18th.
