

Christian Prayer 9

Copyright and acknowledgements

My first introduction to so much that is included in this resource came from Paddy Rylands in the parish of Our Lady and St Joseph, Hanwell. My thanks to her and all those others who, in the years since then, have generously shared their insights and wisdom in parishes, schools and colleges, retreat houses and elsewhere.

Thank you to Jane Porter for her proofreading. Any typos now present are surely ones that have found their way in since she so kindly did her work.

- All scripture passages are from the Jerusalem Bible © 1966, 1967 and 1968 by Darton, Longman & Todd, Ltd and Doubleday, a division of Random House, Inc., with the exception of Psalm 50 which is from The Revised Grail Psalms: A Liturgical Psalter. © 2010, and the translation of the Magnificat is © 1963 The Grail (England).
- The guided meditations (5b i-iii) draw on the meditations popularised by Anthony de Mello SJ. De Mello's Sadhana - A Way to God offers many other meditations and exercises, many of them suitable to feed and develop prayer in a school setting. The book can be accessed on-line at <http://dt.pepperdine.edu/courses/regents%202015/Anthony%20de%20Mello%20-%20Sadhana%20-%20A%20Way%20to%20God.pdf>
- The translation of the Memorial Acclamations are from the English translation of The Roman Missal © 2010, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation; the prayers for the dead are from the English translation of the Order of Christian Funerals © 1989, 1985, International Committee on English in the Liturgy, Inc. All rights reserved.
- No copyright has been identified for the other prayers and translations, but these will be gladly acknowledged if copyright holders make themselves known.
- The Oikumene image used in 8: January belongs to the World Council of Churches; the image of the Advent wreath used in 8: December is taken from Clip Art for Year A, featuring designs by Steve Erspamer, SM © 1992, Archdiocese of Chicago (but coloured subsequently). All other images derive from photographs © 2003-2020, Allen Morris. The image of Christ which is used on most pages of the resource is a detail of a Byzantine mosaic in the former church of Hagia Sophia, Istanbul, Turkey.
