

1 Samuel 26:2,7-9,11-13,22-23

Saul set off and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand men chosen from Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

In the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul lying asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him.

Then Abishai said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I will not need to strike him twice.' David answered Abishai, 'Do not kill him, for who can lift his hand against the Lord's anointed and be without guilt? The Lord forbid that I should raise my hand against the Lord's anointed! But now take the spear beside his head and the pitcher of water and let us go away.' David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, for a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them.

David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them. He called out, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the soldiers come across and take it. The Lord repays everyone for his uprightness and loyalty. Today the Lord put you in my power, but I would not raise my hand against the Lord's anointed.'

Psalm 102(103):1-4,8,10,12-13

The Lord is compassion and love.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings.

It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is compassion and love,
slow to anger and rich in mercy.

He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults.

As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins.

As a father has compassion on his sons,
the Lord has pity on those who fear him.

1 Corinthians 15:45-49

The first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; but the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. That is, first the one with the soul, not the spirit, and after that, the one with the spirit. The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven. As this earthly man was, so are we on earth; and as the heavenly man is, so are we in heaven. And we, who have been modelled on the earthly man, will be modelled on the heavenly man.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son. Alleluia!

Luke 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. If you love those who love you, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks can you expect? For even sinners do that much. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount. Instead, love your enemies and do good, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.'

'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap; because the amount you measure out is the amount you will be given back.'

MEETING
THE PROTECTION OF MINORS IN THE CHURCH
Vatican, February 21-24, 2019

This week Cardinal Vincent Nichols, as President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, took part in the meeting called by Pope Francis to address the protection of minors within the Catholic Church worldwide in the light of the abuse suffered by them within the communities of the Church.

This Saturday our evening Mass coincides with a Penitential Liturgy for those taking part in the Meeting in Rome. We will join our prayer with theirs. And on Sunday morning too, as the Meeting in Rome concludes with Mass, we will pray at Mass for all those who have taken part, for victims, and for the Lord's blessings on the work accomplished and for the challenges ahead.

The meeting ends this Sunday. You can find details, and background, at www.pbc2019.org Our parish is praying for the success of the meeting and the wayays forward that it will provide.

Please keep the victims, the Bishops and the whole Church in your prayer.

Confirmation

A reminder that those CHILDREN CONFIRMED IN DECEMBER 2018 will receive a special blessing at the Sunday Masses in the parish church on 2/3 March. The blessing is to help them prepare to keep Lent well in this first Lent since their confirmation. They should also bring to that Mass the posters they have designed as their winter project. These will be collected after Mass.

The next confirmation programme – FOR CHILDREN NOW IN YEAR 5 – begins after half term. There is an introductory meeting for parents immediately after the parish 7pm Ash Wednesday Mass. The enrolment forms will be available then or the Sunday before from the parish church. Candidates for the Sacrament will be formally enrolled at each of the parish's Sunday Masses on 9/10 March. The Archdiocese will notify the parish of the date for the Confirmation Mass after the summer.

Those confirmed last year and those who are to be confirmed this year are all invited to take an active part in the preparation and celebration of the principal liturgies of the Triduum - The Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Solemn Liturgy on Good Friday and the great Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. These liturgies form the heart of the Church's celebration of the Paschal Mystery. There will be a meeting after the Sunday Masses on 23 and 24 March to introduce these liturgies to the youngsters and their families and help them to volunteer to help and take part.

Pray with Pope Francis

The Pope's prayer intention for March is that Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

To find the Pope's other current prayer intentions please visit <http://www.apostleshipofprayer.org/>

Today, in various parts of the world, sometimes in silence – often a complicit silence – great numbers of Christians are marginalized,... subjected to violence and even death, not infrequently without due intervention on the part of those who could defend their sacrosanct rights.

Pope Francis

- Pray for Christian brothers and sisters who meet with persecution, and who live in fear of violence.
- Learn more about the situation faced by Christians in Iraq and Egypt, in Palestine, in Nigeria and other places of prejudice and discrimination.
- Who experiences prejudice and discrimination in our country? How might we show solidarity with them?
